REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

A Republican Senatorial Convention of the Seventeenth Senatorial District, comprising the county of Rock, is hereby called to meet at the Court House, in the city of Janesville, on the 18th day of July, 1879, at 2 o'clock p.m., of that day, to select two Senatorial delegates to represent the district in the Republican State Convention, to be held at Madison, on the 23d day of July, 1879, and to transact any other business that may be deemed appropriate. Each of the towns and wards will be entitled to the same number of delegates as in the County Convention.

JOHN R. BENNETT,
S. T. MERRILL,
I. M. BENNETT,
S. S. NORTHROP,
W. H. TRIPP, Committee.

Will Mr. A. H. Craig, of this district, member of the Greenback State Central Committee, please rise?

Hon. William A. Lawrence, of this city, received thirty votes in the Greenback Convention for Governor, at Watertown.
He ran better than Utley.

Gabriel's horn was not blown at Watertown. His only chance is to follow the course of General Ewing—run on a ticket which is both Democratic and Greenback.

"Brick" Poweroy is Chairman of the Greenback Executive Committee. He urges the appointment of Greenback clubs after his elaborate plan. He claims there are 200 in Wisconsin, and 6,000 in the United States. He don't want any coquetting with other parties, and is still in favor of burning all the United States bonds.

Our old friend, Colonel Utley, of Racine, who stood in the Republican fold as long as it was pecuniarily profitable, is now a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor on the flat ticket. The Colonel wields a powerful pen when he attacks humbugs, and he would give the State some lively music if he were in a position to "write up" the Greenback Convention. His old-time fire would return with increased heat.

That unknown statesman who keeps a little grocery store at Oshkosh, and was nominated for Congress last year by the Greenbackers, and spent $2,000 for the advancement of the cause of flat money before he was aware he was not a citizen of the United States, has been nominated for State Treasurer by the Greenbackers.
Mr. Griffin will "supply a long felt want"— furnish some funds for the Greenback State Committee.

A writer in the Evening Wisconsin says the village of Kilbourn City has 200 feet above the level of the Atlantic, and 330 feet above Lake Michigan. He is nearly correct as regards the altitude above the Lake, but is greatly mistaken concerning the height above the sea. Lake Michigan is 578 feet above the Atlantic, and Kilbourn 330 feet above the Lake, which will make that delightful summer resort 908 feet above the sea, instead of 200.

THE GREENBACK CONVENTION.

The Greenbackers of this State to the number of one hundred, met at Watertown on Tuesday afternoon and after a good deal of wild talk had been indulged in, and many visionary schemes lauded to the skies, a ticket was nominated. Col. Reuben May, who was placed at the head of the ticket is a Kentuckian by birth, having been born in Pike county, in 1815.
His family removed to Springfield, Vernon county in this State, in 1863 while he was in the military service in Kentucky, commanding the 7th Kentucky volunteers.
He was in several important engagements, and distinguished himself as a strong Union man. He resigned in 1864, and joined his family in Vernon county. He was a postmaster in Kentucky for several years, and in 1853 was a candidate for the State Senate, but was defeated. When he came to Wisconsin he joined the Republican party, and in 1859 was elected to the Legislature again in 1870, and was re-elected in 1871.
Colonel William L. Utley, who has the second position on the flat ticket—a man deserving better company—is well known in waukee.

WHEAT MARKET.

Heavy Transactions in the New York
Wheat Market.

NEW YORK, July 15.—Among the wheat transactions to-day was the sale of a load of 1,000,000 bushels of No. 2 Chicago and Milwaukee spot wheat to arrive soon. It will be taken to the United Kingdom. This is one of the largest lots ever exported, and he sale involves $1,150,000. It caused considerable discussion on the Produce Exchange, because this is the second time within ten days that such an amount has been sent abroad. Both lots were bought and sold by the same firms. When it became known that the first lot was sold, prices advanced about two cents, and the market was thrown into great excitement.
The sale was freely discussed, but it had no particular effect on market prices. The market opened 1½ cents better, and closed with the advance lost.

REMOVED.

A Crippled Union Soldier Removed From the Position of Door-Keeper.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The attempt of the Democrats to deny that Sergeant Oliver Bright had removed a crippled Union soldier from the position of door-keeper of the Senate have fallen through, for it is learned to-day that the removal has been made, although Bright himself is away.
His friends say that he was compelled to do it; the pressure for places is so great. Others say that the man will be replaced, as it would lose the Democrats 20,000 votes in Ohio to have him permanently turned out. His name is Sidney Wilson, and resides in New York.
At the battle of Gettysburg he was severely wounded in one of his legs, and while prostrated on the field the other leg was carried away by a round shot. The leg in which he was first wounded was subsequently amputated, so that he is now without legs.
When Congress adjourned he left Washington, confident in view of the declaration made by Senator Wallace and other Democratic Senators in their places in the Senate that it was not the purpose of the majority to remove the wounded Union soldiers, that he would be retained in his place.

BELOIT COLLEGE.

BELOIT, July 15.—At an informal meeting of some twenty of our citizens this afternoon, $1,100 was subscribed toward a citizens' fund of $5,000 for modernizing the original main building of the Beloit College and increasing the endowment fund. A committee of business men, consisting of C. B. Salmon, Secretary and Treasurer of the Eclipse Windmill Company; James M. Carpenter, one of our leading dry goods dealers, and M. S. Hinman, of Booth, Hinman & Co., wholesale paper dealers, were appointed to solicit further subscriptions in the city, and there seems no reasonable doubt that the full $5,000 will be speedily raised here. There are now raised and pledged some $13,000 in all toward the additional $100,000 being conveyed for.

MEMPHIS.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 15.—The city remains quiet. No new cases are reported, and in a few days it is anticipated all quarantine restrictions now in force against Memphis will be removed. Norfolk, Va., to-day took the initiative, and through cars will go to that city to-night.
The State Board of Health announces that the present quarantine regulations will be discontinued Monday if no new cases develop.

Judge Ray's son is better this evening.
The first train on the Little Rock Road came last Friday left this morning for London, Arkansas, to which point quarantine has been raised.

ODONTOLOGICAL.

MILWAUKEE, July 15.—The ninth annual convention of the State Odontological Society commenced here to-day, about fifty delegates attending. Among the foreman Dr. E. C. French, of Eau Claire; W. F.
Lewis, of this city; and C. E. Gridle, of Manitowish, were admitted to membership.
Dr. Halbrook, of this city, presented a book on practical information about teeth, he had prepared at the request of the Association. This evening Dr. Barber, of Elkhorn, President, read an essay, and was followed by Dr. Elsworth, of Green Bay.
To-morrow, Dr. M. S. Dean, of Chicago, will read a paper on the Origin and Development of Teeth.

CAMPAIGN FUNDS.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The canvass of the Treasury Department for subscriptions to the Republican campaign fund is completed, and several thousand dollars was realized. Less than thirty refused to contribute. No woman and no man receiving less than $1,200 was asked to give.
There was no assessment, and all stories to that effect are false. Each was allowed to give what he chose. Secretary Sherman gave $100, and heads of bureaus generally $50 each. The clerks were more liberal in their contributions than usual, as the fate of their fellows at the Capitol is before them, and they know if the Democrats come into power they all must go.

SUICIDE AT MADISON.

Special to the Sentinel.

MADISON, July 15.—A man about 30 years old committed suicide at the railroad hotel in this city this afternoon by taking morphine. He was found this evening at half past 7, and the following letter found on the stand.

RAILROAD HOTEL, MADISON, Wis., July 15.—To the Worshipful Masters of the Lodges F & A M, Madison, Wis.—SIRS AND BROTHERS: I am to the best of my belief in good standing in Dayton Lodge, No. 14, Dayton, Ohio. Please give me decent attention after death, telegraphing my death to K. D. Hughes, master of said lodge, and telling him to ask what disposition shall be made of my remains. My family will repay all expenditures, but go to no unnecessary expense.
Trusting you will comply, I am respectfully and fraternally (Signed) S. C. KIDD.

On the envelope, written in pencil, was the following:
If it can be done, conceal the cause, except from my family. Call it heart disease or sunstroke.
Another letter addressed to the proprietor of the railroad hotel, was as follows: SIR—I beg pardon for "stepping off" in your house, but it is unavoidable. My family will pay your bill against me.

Respectfully,

(Signed) S. CORRELL KIDD.

There was nothing to show the cause of the suicide. He arrived in town yesterday morning at 3 o'clock, walked into the Railroad House, deposited his satchel on the settee, and went out again, returning about noon, and called for a room. He made his appearance in the evening and acted quite strangely, but finally went to bed. He got up this morning and came up town, stating that he was sick. When he returned to the railroad house he informed the clerk he had procured some medicine and desired to rest during the day. Consequently he was not disturbed till 8 p.m., when the chambermaid went up to make his bed. A boy was sent to his room and he was found rigid in death.
Several large doses of morphia were found on the stand at his bedside. He registered his name as S. Correll, Dayton, Ohio, but signed the letter S. C. Kidd, and underlined the K. He mailed a letter addressed to Mrs. Kidd, Dayton, Ohio, in the hotel letter box this morning. No money or valuables were found on his person. His satchel contained nothing but a few dirty clothes.

KILLING HOT.

MILWAUKEE, July 15.—The hot weather continues, the thermometer to-day registering 91 degrees. Fred Young, a porter of the Wisconsin Central Railroad, was prostrated at the corner of Wisconsin street and Broadway, but will recover.
Four others, names not learned, were stricken in different parts of the city. Theodore Kaler, Principal of the Second District Branch School, died suddenly this afternoon. Cause, intense heat.

THE "SYLPH."

OSHKOSH, July 15.—The jury in the United States Court to-night returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of General John McDonald, W. F. Thompson, and the celebrated Mrs. Limoth, the "Sylph" of the whisky troubles, on trial for resisting an officer in searching the property of McDonald, near Green Lake, last winter.

LIGHTNING.

EAU CLAIRE, July 15.—The Sixth Ward schoolhouse was struck by lightning this forenoon and, with furniture, a total loss of $9,000. The building was insured for $3,000. A laborer named Hans Hasenunson was struck and instantly killed by lightning at 5 a.m. He leaves a wife and five small children, nearly destitute.

CHICAGO GOSSIP.

CHICAGO, July 15, 1879.—O, how hot; the thermometer 95 degrees in the shade, and poor half-roasted humanity vainly endeavoring to obtain even one breath of cool air. Fans are at a premium.

"Our Carter," "The best mayor Chicago ever had," had to rush into an ice house on Saturday evening last, in order to protect himself against the law, and our Common Council. He got so fearfully hot and out of temper, that it was absolutely unsafe for friend or foe, to be within reach; he is somewhat cooler now.

As he is "Mayor of the whole city," a fearful responsibility rests on this Honorable Democrat; and if not arrested at times in his mad career, by Republicans and wise heads, he might let his "eagle" nose again, and that would be a dire calamity.

This city embraces 31 square miles of territory, or 19,840 acres; there are 970 fire alarm stations, at as many different points, and all connected with the central office. The fire limits have been for years co-extensive with the city limits. Our chief fire marshal, Mr. Benner, who has just been reinstated by the Council, and whose efficiency no one will dispute—who is unopposed, has control of three assistants—first, second and third; six sub-assistants, chief clerk, assistant clerk, yetenary surgeon, and store keeper. The number of steamers, with hose carts attached, or 19,340 engines, 8 hook and ladder trucks, 363 men, and 156 horses. There are likewise two fire insurance patrols—one with a captain and 14 men, and the other, a captain and 7 men.
Personal spite will not avail, when the welfare of an entire city is at stake, and the just and honest citizens, whether Republican or Democrat, all unite, and with one voice exclaim, "Thither shall our Carter go, but no farther."

The population of Chicago at present is near 500,000. South division about 120,- 000, North division 100,000, and West division about 260,000.

There are a great many residences being put up the present season; building material is low. Not many business blocks are being built this year. Most every building—at least 90 per cent in the city—has a trust deed or mortgage on it, and the Record's office is kept pretty busy in recording these instruments of torture, and is bringing to poverty many a one, who would do far better on our Western prairies.

Taxes are high, and tax-eaters just as plenty as ever, and more so, seemingly, under the new administration. About 50 per cent is used properly, and the balance a sinecure—for it is so far out of sight that it is never seen again, nor any evidence of its existence. L. MOUTAT.

organizers of that party will be present. Among the eminent being asked the cause of her melancholy, she always replied,

"THAT TERRIBLE OMEN."

Months passed on and grew to years, and still the shadow remained upon this household. The bride now merged into the matron and mother, but never recovered from the shock sustained on that unhappy wedding day. She was as tender and thoughtful in her treatment of her husband and child as could be imagined, but the melancholy that had first characterized her manner had become a settled sadness that never changed.

About two weeks ago it was noticed that she was even in lower spirits than formerly, and about ten days ago she attempted to commit suicide by taking strychnine; but her condition was fortunately discovered in time, and a physician summoned at once, who by prompt measures, saved her life.

Since this time the unfortunate lady has remained in the same depressed condition as before the attempt upon her life, and what the result of this superstitious fear of the marriage day will be, time alone can show.

Washing George Washington.

Philadelphia Record, July 9.

George Washington has stood for many years in solemn silence in front of independence hall, except on the water of the main Franklin's novel printing-press and other choice relics safely guarded within the walls of the sacred building, where the old bell first rang out the peals which proclaimed liberty to the New World.

Through summer's heat and winter's cold and pelting storms and howling blasts the faithful sentinel has remained in dogged silence at his post, never once complaining or seeking shelter from the inclemency of the weather. Like many another veteran who, however, has endured less exposure in the discharge of duty, George was beginning to present a woeful appearance from the accumulation of dust and dirt which had been ground into his hair and eyes and the folds of his garments during the years of his faithful service, and the Commissioner of City Property, Dixey, in the goodness of his soul, concluded last week that he would treat the venerable soldier to a sponge bath, so as to make a becoming appearance on the Fourth of July.

Accordingly the services of an abolitionist were secured, and with brush, soap, and water the nonpareil of the imported hair began to fulfill his contract. As the dirt disappeared and the original features of the Father of his Country reappeared, the stains which had been occasioned through the effects of the weather also stood out in bolder prominence. This fact was observed by a patriotic soul who immediately rushed up to the Mayor's office, demanding that that officer should order the high and mighty prerogative and put a stop to it. Seeing the yellow stains on the

work of acids which the manipulator of the scrubbing-brush had resorted to, and so made the demand for official interference. Receiving no satisfaction from the Mayor, the enthusiastic and misguided patriot threatened to take all sorts of exposures and denunciations through the newspapers of the heartless being who was thus deliberately dis-gracing the country's savior. But Mr. Dixey says there have been no acids used in cleaning the figure since it was created.

The stains on it are only such as have been produced by the action of the atmosphere and the dirt of drifting dust. The Commissioner has contracted with a marble-worker for cleaning the statue with the chisel.

This, of course, is a delicate piece of work, and requires rare skill. The workmen who will give George a new nose and carve out for him a fresh ear are employed constantly in cleaning statuary in cemeteries, and many of these pieces are far more finely worked than that in front of Independence Hall. It will require about a week's time for these two artists to chisel the dirt and stains from the form of the venerated hero, and then he will once more be the whitest man in town.

Spanish Living and Dying.

The Spanish father is absolute king and lord by his own heartiness, but his way is so mild that it is hardly felt. A light word goes unexplained, and the rift between them widens through life. They cannot be divorced; they will not incur the stigma of public separation—and so they pass lives of lonely isolation in adjoining apartments, both thinking better of each other and of themselves for this de-vish persistence.

If men were never heckled except by learned wives, Spain would be the place of all others for timid men to marry in.

The girls are bright and vivacious, but they have no culture, even in school-day excursions, the border line oligues. They have an old proverb which coarsely conveys this idea: "That a Christian woman in good society, ought not to know anything beyond her cookery book and her missal."

An ordinary Spaniard is sick and once in his life, and the old doctor who has been the director of death as always hunting in couples still survive in Spain.

All well-to-do families the house of death is deserted immediately after the funeral, and the stricken ones retire and pass eight days in invariable seclusion.

Children are buried in coffins of a gray color, pink or blue, and carried open to the grave. A luxury of grief consists in shutting up the house, where a death has occurred and never suffering it to be opened again. I once saw a beautiful house and wide garden thus abandoned in one of the most fashionable streets in Madrid. The wife of a certain duke had died there five years before. The duke lived in Paris, leading a raffish life, but he would never leave his Madrid home. Perhaps in his heart, that battered thoroughfare, there was a silent spot, where, through the gloom of dead days, he could catch a glimpse of a white hand, the rustle of a trailing robe, and feel sweeping over him the magic of love's dream, softening his fancy to tender regret.—Cassidian

WARD CAUCUSES.

The Republican Ward Committees give notice that Republican caucuses will be held in the several wards on Thursday, July 17th, at 5 o'clock p. m., to elect delegates to the Senatorial and Assembly Conventions. The caucuses will be held at the following places:

FIRST WARD—At the Common Council Room.
SECOND WARD—At Water and Wisconsin Streets.
THIRD WARD—At Agricultural Room, Court House.
FOURTH WARD—West Side Engine House.
FIFTH WARD—At Luther Clark's Shop, West Milwaukee street.

BRIEFLETS.

—A little Manitoba, but it melts quickly.
—Henry Conrad, of Chicago, paid one of his flying visits to the city yesterday.
—No one's standing in society is so much talked about now as the thermometer family.
—Full arrangements for the Madison excursion to Madison on the 31st inst. are announced in another column.
—A third ward man was seen on Main street to-day without a rag on him, and yet he wasn't arrested. His clothes were whole.
—Mr. C. E. Dennis, of Rockford, is spending a few days in the city. He is a fine tenor singer, and is a favorite musician in Rockford.
—A man in the employ of James Moust, in the town of Harmony, was yesterday prostrated by the heat, but by prompt and skillful treatment, was speedily restored.
—Mrs. B. G. Barton, of New Orleans, is visiting her brother, Richard, and his wife, Miss Lewis, of Chicago. She is also visiting her sister, Mrs. A. M. Valentine.

—During such hot weather as we have had for a few days past it is no use to tell a man to go to —. Just tell him to go to hell—p lay a tin roof. It's fully as forcible and it avoids all theological differences of belief.
—Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Fethers entertained in an informal but very happy manner about forty of their friends last evening, the occasion being the eleventh anniversary of their marriage day. The evening was passed in a highly enjoyable manner.
—The jail has been renovated and repaired. The whitewashing, painting and papering has added greatly to the appearance and comfort of the whole building. Sheriff Comstock is determined that there shall be nothing left undone to make the jail as neat as possible, and it was never in as fine condition as now.

—William Payne, of Sandwich, Ill., is visiting this city, where he formerly resided for many years. He is the inventor of Payne's self-binder which is doing most excellent work. Yesterday Mr. K. W. Bemis was testing some of the binders and found that they did work admirably, and from all appearances "there is millions in it" for the inventor.

—Several cows broke into F. F. Pierson's garden about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Pierson attempted to drive them out by aid of her dog, but one cow would not be driven and made a fierce attack on the dog, and then turned on the lady. She would doubtless have been badly injured had not Mr. George Reese happened on the scene about that time. He was armed with a stock whip and soon caused the cow to change her mind. The above incident should be put in large print and word as a medal by those who so enthusiastically favor giving the freedom of the city to the cow.

THE GIRLS' SOCIAL.

Last night there was a very pleasant social gathering at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Conant, under the auspices of the Girls' Society of the Court Street Methodist Church. The lawn was beautifully illuminated, and served as a pleasant play ground for the little folk, and a promenade for the older ones, while within the parlors were other attractions no less pleasing. The various articles prepared by the deft fingers of the little girls were displayed in a little bazaar, and met with a ready sale. There was music and ice-cream, and in fact everything needful for a jolly social gathering.

DRUGGISTS' SUNDRIES.

The Rock County Pharmaceutical Association met at Clinton yesterday. The following new members were elected: W. H. Gates, Milton Junction, Dr. D. G. Morris, of Sharon, K. N. Hollister, of Delavan, Prof. Chamberlain, and A. H. Hollister, of Madison, E. B. Heimstreet, of this city, read a paper on "Fluctuations of the drug market for the past ten years." W. C. Raydon, of Rockton, Illinois, presented one of "The Duties of the Pharmacist." E. B. Heimstreet, F. F. Prentice, of this city, and A. H. Hollister, of Madison, were chosen delegates to the American Association which meets in Indianapolis next September. It was decided to hold the next meeting in Janesville October 15th, at which time it is expected that there will be a large number of druggists present from all parts of the State, and an attempt will be made to organize a State Association.

A HOTEL CHANGE.

Since the first of June C. W. White, formerly the chief clerk of the Plankinton house, has become the manager of that widely known and highly popular hotel, and has caused the hotel to be wholly renovated. A large amount of new furniture has been put in, and the hotel thoroughly re-fitted, making it more attractive and comfortable than ever before. Notwithstanding the great improvements made there has been a reduction of prices so that even a chronic grumbler can find nothing to find fault with. Only $2 to $2.50 is charged per day for rooms above the parlor floor, and a room on the second floor with bath room attached can be had for $3 a day. The hotel is indeed a model of neatness and comfort, as many of our readers know from experience, and under the management of Mr. White, its reputation will be worthily sustained and its success surely increased. All who visit Milwaukee should remember the Plankinton.

DECIDING ON DELEGATES.

The Third Assembly District Republican Elect J. F. Cleghorn and J. B. Tracy as Delegates to the Madison Convention.

A Republican Convention of the Third Assembly District was held at the Court House this afternoon for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention. In the absence of the Chairman of the Committee, the convention was called to order by J. F. Cleghorn, of Clinton, and the formal call was read, after which G. W. La Monte, of Clinton, was chosen Chairman, and W. W. Clarke, of Milton, Secretary.

On motion the Chairman appointed as a Committee on Credentials Messrs Keith, Tracy and Barless. They reported the following as present and entitled to seats in the convention:

Fulton—E. Wixam, A. Childs, J. Miles, Wm Taylor, H. Brace.
Milton—J. E. Coakley, J. S. Badger, L. P. Morgan, J. B. Tracy, W. W. Clarke.
Lima—F. Gould, G. Gleason, S. G. Burdick.

Clinton—J. F. Cleghorn, G. W. La Monte, P. H. Swift, D. G. Cheever, D. G. Marsh.

Harmony—A. Barless.
Turtle—J. H. Cooper, W. Gates, S. H. Slaymaker.

Johnstown—Collin Smith, G. D. Hall, A. A. Keith.

On motion of D. G. Cheever the Convention proceeded to ballot for delegates to the State Convention, the Chair appointing Mr. Slaymaker and Mr. Childs as tellers, and it being decided that delegates present should cast the full vote to which the towns represented by them were entitled. The ballot resulted:

J. F. Cleghorn.....15
D. G. Cheever.....3
J. B. Tracy.....2
J. H. Cooper.....2
Total number of votes.....22
Necessary to a choice.....12

Mr. Cleghorn was therefore declared one of the delegates.

The ballot for the other delegate resulted as follows:

J. B. Tracy.....19
A. Barless.....7
J. S. Badger.....1

Whole number of votes.....27
Necessary to a choice.....14

J. B. Tracy was therefore declared the delegate elected.

Mr. D. G. Cheever introduced the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That although we do not deem it necessary to instruct our Rock county delegates in any convention to which they may be sent yet as representatives of the Third Assembly District we desire to endorse our present economical and worthy State administration by expressing a wish that our present State officers may be nominated and elected.

Mr. Keith introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That the delegates be requested to use their influence to have future State Conventions called earlier in the season.

Adjournment was then taken.

THE MARSHAL WINS FORTY SUITS.

Last night Marshal Russell came across a party of about forty boys, big and little, swimming in the river near the ice house. He proceeded to gather up their clothes which lay on the bank, and carted them to the police headquarters. One poor little fellow was lame, and when he reached the bank the only clothing he had was a pair of crutches. This touched the Marshal's heart and he gave him his suit. A big trapping fellow noticing this begged too for mercy, but was recommended to take an old barrel which was near by and slip that on. Finding that begging was no use he knocked the bottom out of the barrel and slipped it on as though it was a pair of pants and streaked it for home as best he could. Others sought their father's house like wet and stripped prodigals, and getting on other clothes hurried down to police headquarters, and got their clothes. A large supply of old clothes remained at headquarters until this morning when the other bathers put in their claims which were honored on demand, and they walked off with their wardrobes under their arms. The Marshal says that he is bound that the boys shall stop swimming at Monterey and at the dam, and that now he has quit fooling and means business, and hereafter there will be no clothes snatching, but the offenders will be locked up. Cut this out, boys, and commit it to memory.

AN EXODUS OF YOUNG DARRIES.

A bright Milwaukee wench reached the city yesterday in search of three little darricks who had run away from home. Two of them belonged to her, and one to a neighbor. They were only boys, the eldest being about thirteen. She had been after them for a week or more, and had at last got trace that the lads had tramped it to this city. Arriving on the morning train, she started down Milwaukee street, crossed the bridge, and had just passed the Myers house, when her eyes fell upon the trio about a block away. One of the boys was on the alert and he had barely time to yell "Dum am de old woman—look yer" and he set his legs into a lively motion up the street. The other boys turned to see, and the old lady paralyzed them with "Hold yere, Moses, don't yer stir—you's a dead nig if yer move a finger's worth—don't yer run—keep dar I tell yer," and she came up puffing, and shaking one clinched fist, while she beat the air with an overgrown palm-leaf clutched in the other. She interviewed Moses who seemed to be the leader. He was a black little fellow, and the way his eyes rolled about in fright made one think of a ghost rising in the midnight darkness of a graveyard. His head was hidden under a man's hat of wondrous breadth, which rested half upon his ears and half upon his shoulders. He was the picture of surprise and despair. "Now you Moses, what yer want to run away from hum fer—yer gits enough to cat and a good place for to sleep—and you don't want for nuffin—what yer want to git from such a hum fer—now look at yerself—where's dat new hat I giv yer—where's dem new shoes—oh, jes look at yerself—why, yer lousy—yer dirty—where gett stuff to cat—I'll put yer what the dogs can't find."

yer—I fix yer, yer little runaway nigger, yes, I will, hear me, hear me, Moses," and she rattled on until a by-stander suggested that she had better try to capture the neighbor's boy too. It was a good suggestion, but being out of breath, and sweating like an overflowing water-works tower, she invested twenty-five cents in a tough young Irish boy to capture the other runaway for her. It was fun for him and he soon captured the boy and brought him into camp. The procession then started for the depot, the Irish boy bringing up the rear in good order. The enterprising dame took the noon train for home, full of elation, and divided her time between chuckling herself under the ribs at her successful capture of the runaways, and cuffing the young culprits for talking back when they said anything, and for keeping sulky when they hadn't say anything. The boys have been hanging around town for several days, and have been sleeping out doors and begging their board, but they will now be kindly cared for at their home in Milwaukee.

THE TEMPLE OF HONOR.

Madison excursion promises to be a grand success. It is very seldom that so many attractions are offered to excursionists in one single day: The Republican State Convention, the grand mass convention to celebrate the organization of the Republican party, which occurred in July, 1854. Speakers, Hon. Zach Chandler, Matt Carpenter, C. G. Williams, J. C. Burrows, E. W. Keyes, J. H. Sleeper. The grove picnic, steamboat excursions on the ever beautiful lakes, taking in the Insane Asylum, and other points of interest, reaching home at 8 o'clock in the evening.

UNGRADED SCHOOLS.

What the Superintendent of Public Instruction and Others Say About It.

The Special Committee on Course of Instruction for Ungraded Schools, made the following report to the recent Teachers' Association held at La Crosse:

Your Committee to whom was referred that portion of the President's address which discusses the course of study for ungraded schools, beg leave to report as follows:

They endorse most heartily the statements of the President that "any and all attempts to prescribe a course of study for the ungraded schools become a matter of the highest importance, worthy of the best thought and effort of the best minds. I am firmly persuaded that such a course is practicable, desirable, and imperatively necessary in order to obtain the highest efficiency and economy of our schools of this character."

It will be remembered that this Association expressed at the last annual session its views upon the pressing need of inaugurating a system for the better organization of the ungraded schools of the State. A tentative course of study for these schools received at that time the approval of this body. At the last holiday session, the Association urged the revision of this course of study and its speedy introduction into our schools.

Through other means has the attention of the people of the State been called the past year to this subject. At the recent annual meeting of the conductors of our institutes, as well as at their meeting a year ago, the necessity of using this course of study especially in our country schools, and the instrumentalities for securing its introduction into these schools, were most carefully considered. No other topic elicited more earnest thought, on these occasions. The Institute Committee of the Normal School Board published this course of study in the Institute circulars for the past and present years, and distributed thousands of copies of these circulars among the county superintendents and the teachers of the State. This committee directed the conductors to explain the features of this course to the teachers in attendance upon their institutes. County Superintendents have been advised to use this or a similar course in their schools. As a result of this agitation some of the Superintendents and a considerable number of the teachers in the county schools have been testing the advantages of this scheme and with excellent results.

Your committee would urge the discussion of this subject during the coming year and would suggest the following means of promoting this end:

1. The State Department of Public Instruction be requested to prepare an issue, as soon as practicable, a circular setting forth the necessity for the adoption of the proposed course of study in all the ungraded schools of the State, explaining the different portions of this course, and suggesting the practical means by which such a course can be used at an early day in these schools.

2. The conductors of the institutes take great pains at the next series of their institutes to express upon the minds of the teachers of our common schools the utility of this scheme and the methods by which they can introduce it into their schools.

3. The County Superintendents give increased attention to this subject in their instructions to the teachers under their charge, and in their interviews with the members of the School Boards. On them more than on any other agency depends the final success of this movement.

4. A committee of five appointed by the President of this Association be authorized to investigate further this subject especially in its relations to the present condition of our ungraded schools, and the progress of this scheme in the State during the next six months, and report at the semi-annual meeting in December next.

Respectfully submitted,
W. C. WHITFORD,
ROBERT GRAHAM,
J. T. LUNN,
M. S. FRAWLEY,
MARY BRANDENBURG,
Committee.

"Maryland Telephone Co.," Baltimore. Dr. Swayne & Son—Gents: I have been suffering for ten years with Asthma, Bronchitis and an affection of the stomach, causing me to expectorate a great deal of thick phlegm; have tried various medicines and treatments, but never could get relief until I tried your "Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry." It loosens the phlegm, which chokes me, and induces sleep, and can feel myself improving in health and growing stronger as I persevere in its use. This is entirely voluntary on my part, and you can make use of it, if you see proper, for the benefit of sufferers as well as yourselves. ROBERT T. KEYS, residence, 141 Park avenue, Baltimore, April 12, 1879.

No other known remedy possesses the great virtue of Dr. Swayne's Syrup in effectively curing all troubles of the air passages and lungs. Equally valuable in Bronchitis and Asthmatic affections. The first dose gives relief, and it is sure to cure the worst cough, all throat, breast and chest diseases. Price 25 cents and $1, or six bottles for $5. The large size is the most economical. Prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Sold by all prominent druggists. Jy30edwily-2
